ANNUAL SPORTS FEST 2018

OJASVAT

31ST MARCH -2ND APRIL 2K18

Ojasvat- 2018

The Annual Sport's festival of the acclaimed Sharda University, untiringly platformyfyng the athletes and players within the campus and those from different institutions across. The annual sports festival of The Grand Sharda University which entices around 8000 footfalls per day during the 4day sports carnival in the University. Many leading Universities across the Nation send their best athletes and participants to display their excellence in various sports activities like Cricket, Badminton, Volleyball, Basketball, Football, Chess, Tug of war and athletics. Leading participant Universities are Graphic Era-Dehradun, GITM-Gurgaon, Amity University, GBU, Ansal University etc. The University and fraternity take immense responsibility and works hard in making the fest bigger and better than the last one. Students learn to work and play as team, they realise the value of their practice and hard work and experience that they gain through their participation in different exhilarating events.

This year's Ojasvat started from 31st March and ended on 2nd April, 2018. After a participation of 16 teams for the cricket tournament comprising of various universities including Sharda, 11 knockout matches were held in the league apart from semi-finals and the final. RKGIT won the battle after a thrilling 5 wicket win over G.L Bajaj. The winning team was led by Piyush Pratap Singh. But the trophy for the best player of the tournament was snatched by Shivansh Saharawat of NIET. All the matches held were of 12 overs each.

9 various teams of boys and 4 teams of girls registered and played to win the Basketball tournament, but in the end it was the energetic of the host, Sharda University that didn't allow anyone else to claim the winning trophies for both boys and girls. Sharda's boys' team competed with the excellent team of Amity in the finals to achieve the feat. Sharda settled and confirmed the win with 66 points against 57 of their opponent, a competitive match it was indeed. The fame of the best player amongst the boys was awarded to Gaurav, bearing jersey no.11, of Amity University for the excellent Sportsmanship he displayed in the match. And "jo bhi kehta ha inki ladkiyo main dum nahi, our girls proved that who bhi kisi se kam nahi" by registering the final win over the energetic team of Graphic Era. The trophy for the best female basketball player was awarded to Michele From Sharda University.

Talking about Volleyball, it was the team of Sharda University (boy's) that registered the win over Ambedkar College (Boy's) in the final match. The team of the Runner's up consisted of a National level player (name) but the consistent efforts and tactics of Badshah belonging to the Sharda's team, who was awarded the best player proved that he is ready for any competition of any level to register the win. A total of 6 teams participated in the Boy's league. A bit of disappointment was also endured by the Shardans as the Gil's Volleyball team lost in the final match played between Sharda (girl's) and Gargi College (girl's). The winning team was lead by Neha Bisht. But Sneha Ashwini of Galgotia University silently bagged the best player's award in her name for her exhilarating performance throughout the tournament.

In the Badminton events being played, the players of Sharda University displayed their excellence in the court by registering multiple wins throughout the league. In the Boy's single event, Vishal Sourabh was the winner and Aman Raheja was the Runner's up both from the host, Sharda University. And in the Boy's double event, yet again it was Shardans that registered the win over the team of Amity University in the finals. The winning team comprised of Vishal and Arpit and their opponents in the final were Chakradhar and Tanzeel of Amity. Even in the Boy's team event Shardans were the winners and the Runner's up was the team of MMU, Ambala. The Girls of Sharda also claimed the winner trophy in the Girl's team event. They played their final with the team of Sri Venkateshwar College to win the feat.

The officials that were associated with various events were- Raviraj Verma (Volleyball), Man Singh (Badminton), Sarvind Kumar (Volleyball), Sourabh Kumar (Basketball), Umesh Untal (Basketball), and Rahul (Basketball)

All the winners were awarded Cash Prizes, Trophies and Certificates are awarded to all the participants to reward their hard work. The distribution of the prizes and certificates were marked by the gracious presence of Dr. Nirupma Gupta (Dean student's Welfare), Dr. Mohit Sahni, Mrs. Pauline Sharmila and Mr. Vishal Bansal. The University is thankful to them for the motivation and spirit they provided to the students via their words in their speeches. Sharda University is forever indebted to Dr. Arun Verma (Assistant Director of Sports) for moulding the students into finest of athletes as his hard work is clearly visible in the medal tally where Sharda leads.
