Journey Of NCC Cadets In Sharda University

Sharda University's National Cadet Corps is a proud and determined cell. Despite the fact that an NCC cadet's festivities and passionate activities begin each year with the commemoration of Republic Day.

However, Sharda University has an exciting moment planned for the year 2021, which is an NCC Camp on campus. Not just any ordinary CATC or other training camps, but the well-known IBC/RDC camp.

These camps have garnered national recognition. Sharda University is honored to seize such a chance and to serve as the living soliloquy for the success of these programs.

CATC CAMP – 130 – Camp @Sharda University

From November 21 to November 30, 2021, Sharda University organized the National Cadet Corps (NCC) Camp for the first time. . IBC and CATC were the two sections of the camp. Cadets from ten different battalions from all throughout Uttar Pradesh attended the training.

The 41 UP Battalion (Bulandshahar) organized the camp.

The Camp attracted 800 cadets, followed by 250 girl cadets and rest boy cadets. Cadets followed a strict ten-day schedule.

All About CATC 130 Camp @ Sharda University

The CATC camp emphasized character development and provided a peek of a military camp.

Holding a genuine gun and firing it was the most exhilarating sensation. In addition to being exposed to camp life, cadets were taught critical skills such as map reading, physical training, weapons training, war crafts, and drill throughout their time in camp.

In association with doctors, Suno Sharda 90.8 FM radio, SMFE launched an awareness campaign to inform cadets about covid and future waves. Students were given subjects to address onstage during public speaking sessions to help them gain confidence and assertiveness.
