7	Course Description	This course discusses one of the strongest nations of the world, which experienced an evolution in its social structures of feudalism and capitalism, much like the western world. The country even though small in size went on a path of rapid modernisation and soon became a strong state. The economic policy changes, educational prowess and movement of freedom and people's rights made Japan a very strong economy. But with the rise of Fascism, the Japanese will to subordinate the western countries took hold and a wrong turn led to its complete demolition. Japan, however changed its policies, got back to its feet and the modern day Japan presents a picture of a developed, self reliant and strong economy. This course discusses the journey of Modern day Japan.
