- i. B.A. (Regular)
- ii. B.A. (Hons.) Political Science, Sociology, Psychology and History

- In the recent coverage in leading dailies there has been constant focus on the manifold increase in the number of students expressing interest in Humanities. This can also be seen in the massive queues of students seeking admission to Humanities courses at The University of Delhi. Sensing a rise in the demand and with a purpose to cater to the needs of the current generation of students constructively, School of Languages and Culture (henceforward SOLC), Sharda University looks forward to offer new programmes alongside its already successful B.A. (H) English programme.

- Hence, the school proposes to introduce the following new programmes in the forthcoming session , 2018-19 with OBE documents and proposed credit structures in the annexures named against these:
 - B.A. (Regular) - OBE Document
 - B.A. (Regular) - Credit Structure
 - BA (Hons.) - History, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology - OBE Document
 - BA (Hons.) Sociology - Credit Structure -History, Political Science, Psychology,
- The above programmes have been designed in accordance with CBCS (Choice Based Credit System) suggested by UGC and are based on Outcome Based Education Model.
- It is proposed that the students opting for the above programmes would study common courses in the 1st year, comprised of two semesters (Term I & II). From 2nd year (Term III) onwards they may proceed with the study of their chosen major programme.
- The common course modules of the 1st year (Term I & II) for the above programmes have been attached for approval.

The details are placed at Annexure-56.
