SHARDA UNIVERSITY

ONE OF NORTH INDIA'S LEADING UNIVERSITIES

The Sharda Group of Institutions (SGI) have been the provider of world class education since 1996. SGI the largest educational group based in Uttar Pradesh, has on its rolls 20,000+ students and more than 1200+ faculty members. Its 45,000+ alumni are today the leaders in their realms. The state-of-the-art campuses in Agra, Mathura and Greater Noida are located on 180 acres of land. Sharda Group of Institutions were the first in the self-financing sector in North India to receive Accreditation from the National Board of Accreditation (NBA) for internationally competitive Teaching-Learning Processes and Infrastructure facilities.

Responding to the strong need of bringing world class education to India at affordable price, Sharda Education Trust established a multi-disciplinary global university in the year 2009. Sharda University is located at Knowledge Park-III, Greater Noida in the National Capital Region (NCR), 25 km away from New Delhi.

The curriculum offered is continuously upgraded to keep pace with the overall development of industry and in line with the best practices followed world over. Highly stimulating instructions developed by experienced Indian and International faculty are delivered in ICT enabled environment, to train students and to develop their skills in tune with national campaigns like; 'Make In India' and 'Digital India'. The teaching-learning process coupled with convenient and flexible credit options make Sharda University a truly global University.

B.A. ENGLISH (Hons.)

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in English is a three year degree course offered by School of Languages and Culture. Students who are proficient in English communication and have passed Sr. secondary (10+2) with 50% marks from a recognized board are eligible for this course. The course not only sets in a base for higher academic degree in English literature but also enables students to gain a certain set of skills namely reading skill, Phonetics, creative writing, critical thinking, analytical thinking, understanding of relationship between literature and cinema, literature and culture and so on. It is highly relevant in the context of an ever expanding base of professions based on English studies.

CAREER PROSPECTS AVAILABLE AFTER B.A. ENGLISH (HONS.)

B.A. (Hons.) English is a unique undergraduate programme which provides a wide range of job opportunities in fields such as Advertising, Academics, Journalism and Mass media, Public Relations and so on. Graduates can get jobs in private as well as government organizations. The prospects include:

- Advertising
- Publishing
- English Language Trainer
- Research
- Scriptwriter
- Teaching
- Translation
- Proofreader
- TV Anchor
- Reporter
- Editor
- Telemarketing Executives

The salary for professionals in these fields, is usually determined by the type of organization and is commensurate with position and experience. Students who opt to become teachers need to pursue a B.Ed. degree or M.Ed. degree. Those who are interested in research can opt for the Doctoral degree. With the PhD degree, one can apply for the position of University lecturer. The career as a translator is also quite lucrative.

B.A. HISTORY (Hons.)

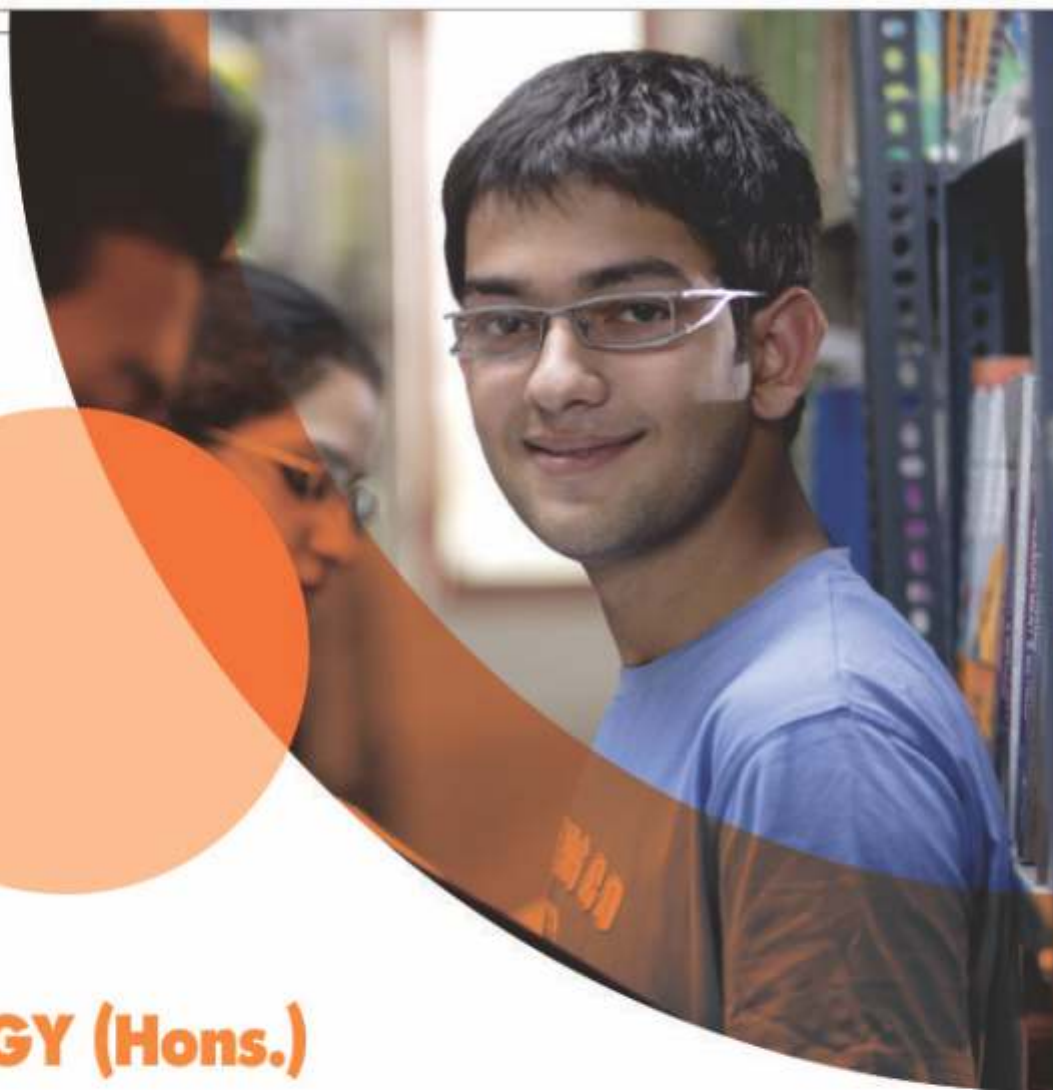

B.A. (Hons.) History is a 3-year undergraduate course, the minimum eligibility for which is a 10+2 qualification. The programme aims to build in eligible students basic and advanced lessons in the discipline of History. The most obvious skill that you get from a history degree is a thorough understanding of historic events and facts. You'll know, or at least have a general idea for, the significant names, dates, and events that shaped our collective history, both here in the United States and globally.

You'll understand how countries were formed, how people lived, and how society moved from ancient civilization to the present. But this historical knowledge won't just be reciting facts and figures, it will involve the significance and the underlying importance of major events. You'll not only know the names and dates behind history's most important events, but why they were important, both leading up to the historical event and the aftermath.

CAREER PROSPECTS AVAILABLE AFTER B.A. HISTORY (HONS.)

- Museum Curators
- History Teachers
- Broadcast Journalist
- Charity Officer
- Exhibition Designer
- Corporate Investment Banker
- Genealogy
- Editorial Assistant
- Chartered Certified Accountant

- Law
- Advertising and Public Relations

The truth is that if you are passionate about history, and work to combine knowledge with gained experience and learned skills, then a history degree is not only practical, it's extremely marketable.

B.A. SOCIOLOGY (Hons.)

Sociology is the study of human social relationships and groups. Sociology's subject matter is diverse, ranging from crime to religion, from the family to the state, from the divisions of race and social class to the shared beliefs of a common culture, and from social stability to radical change in whole societies.

It also provides an understanding of how and why society functions and the impact of social institutions on individual lives. Sociologists ask how class, gender, race, ethnicity, age and geographic region affect access to scarce resources like wealth, income, power and prestige as they explore the nature and operation of the social institutions.

CAREER PROSPECTS AVAILABLE AFTER B.A. SOCIOLOGY (HONS.)

REMEDIAL ENGLISH CLASSES

English is considered the lingua franca of the world today. Because the language is spoken around the world and used worldwide in the fields of business, technology, and science, a thorough knowledge of English opens the door to better career prospects.

Remedial English Classes are offered to equip students from different disciplines to overcome the linguistic challenges, understand different accents and standardize their knowledge of communicative English. The students are guided to hone the basic communication skills with focus on listening, speaking, reading and writing.

VIEWS THAT SPEAK EXCELLENCE

Ms. Shikha Gaur- M.A. English, 1st Year

Being a student of School of Languages and Cultures, I got a chance to live a new way of life. This department gave me several opportunities to enhance my communication skills and to progress academically. Here I gained a lot of confidence, to which I was oblivious at the beginning. Extracurricular activities which are frequently organized tremendously raised my level of confidence. The faculty members are always supportive and encouraging and I am very grateful to them.

Ms. Wesufa Loungchot, B.A. English (Hons.), IIrd Year

SOLC provides the best base in individual development as well as grooming for becoming an asset to the society. It has been a year attending series of grooming session by our respective mentors, I find myself in a new light of knowledge and wisdom. Now, when I pause for a while at this moment and look back upon the very first day I stepped in this department as a larve, I find myself as a pupa. And two years from now, as I peep through the lens of knowledge and wisdom, I see myself as a colourful butterfly.

Ms. Kinga Zangmo Wangchuk, B.A. English (Hons), IIIrd Year

School of languages and culture is committed to delivering a high quality academic experience within a nurturing environment for students from diverse backgrounds. With a well-supported and well engaged environment, I have been able to achieve the best possible outcomes. Overall, I have had a pleasurable and interactive year with the amiable teachers and equally friendly students in Sharda University.

Ms. Yashila Thakoor, B.A. English (Hons.), IIIrd Year

Being an international student my experience in School of Languages and Culture has been great till now. There has always been a wonderful bonding-be it with teachers or the fellow students. For me, we are like family. SOLC: A place called HOME.

Mr. Divyanshu Sajwan, B.A. English (Hons.), IIIrd Year

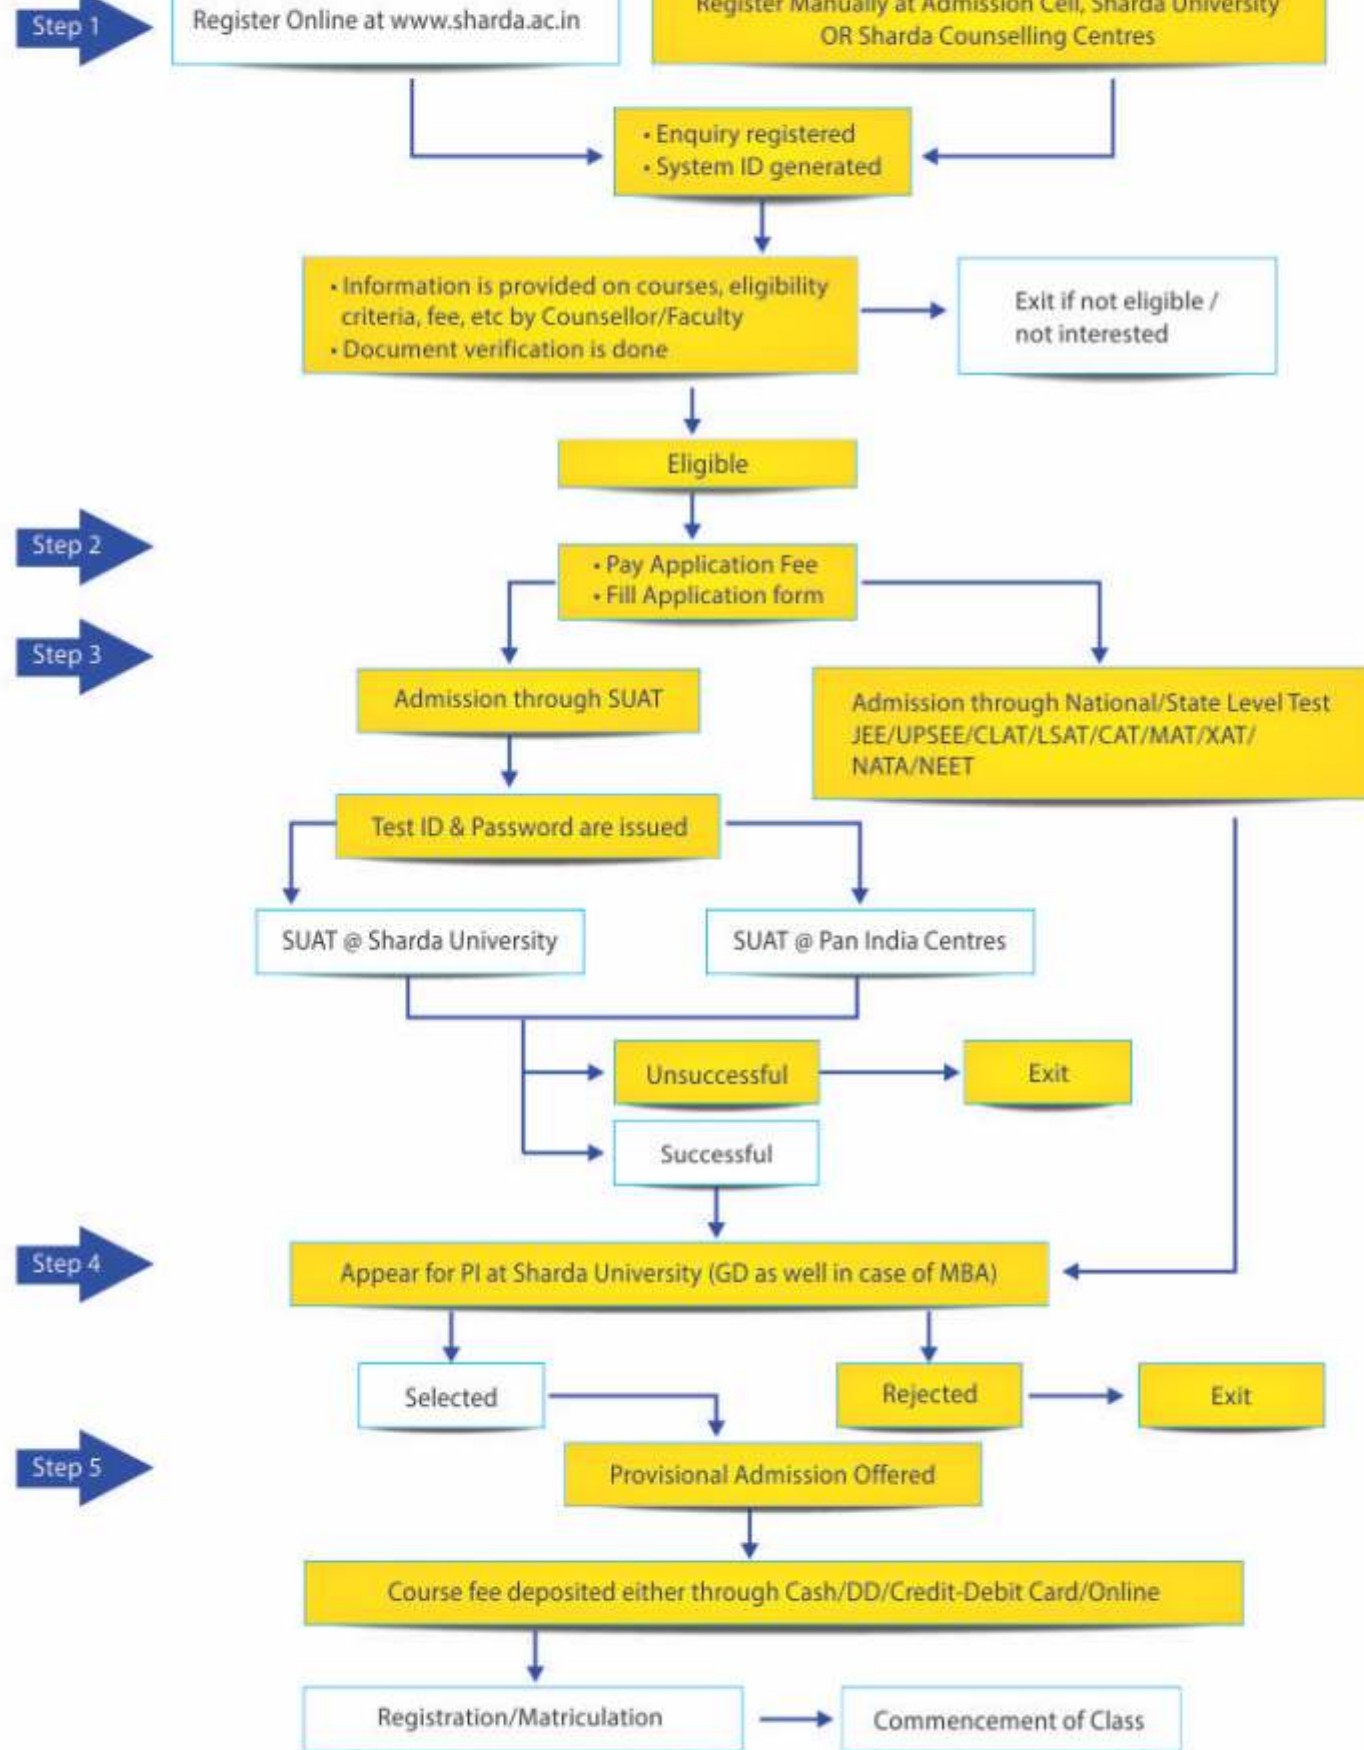

School of Language and Culture is the most unique and creative school amongst the schools at the Sharda University. It has given me and my fellow classmates multiple opportunities, not only to showcase our critical and creative abilities in the field of literature but also in many other co-curricular fields such as art, singing, dancing, painting and many such others. Overall it has been a great experience to learn and grow under the guidance of the most experienced and eminent professors.

Ms. Purna Shaha, B.A. English (Hons.), IIIrd Year

As the tagline says, "The World is Here". Truly the world seems to be here at Sharda, where people from different countries and even several Indian states come together to study and enrich themselves academically. Quality Education is a priority at SOLC, yet students are also provided with ample opportunities to enjoy through plenty of co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
