LL.M.

One year LL.M. (Master of Law) is an internationally recognized postgraduate law degree. It is obtained by completing one-year full-time programme. Law students and professionals pursue the LL.M. to gain expertise in a specialized field of law, for example in the area of Corporate Law and Criminal Law. Many law firms prefer candidates with an LL.M. degree because it indicates that a lawyer has acquired advanced, specialized legal training, and is qualified to work in a multinational legal environment.

The Master of Law (LL.M.) is the degree of choice for career advancement and international credibility, particularly in today's competitive and globally focused legal environment. Early-and mid-career lawyers pursue the LL.M. voluntarily when looking to expand their proficiency in a specific area of law.

LL.M. degrees are a valuable investment for many lawyers, as they provide an exploration of the nuances of law. It has been a great experience to be a part of Sharda University. All the faculty and staff members are very helpful and they guided us all the time. Different events and sessions did boost my confidence to a great extent that I can experience at my workplace now. It has been an unforgettable journey.

I am proud to be part of dynamic campus in mentorship of highly experienced professors, where I can give wings to my imagination. I have experienced friendly and very vibrant environment in campus where I can learn as much I can and do as much I wish.

My experience at Sharda's School of Law has been quite enlightening. A multi-cultural environment gives the students an illuminating introspects in the classrooms itself. Also, the practical elements provided make the course an exciting venture, eliciting a broader insight into the field, especially with the frequent visits to places like District Court, Supreme Court, National Commission, etc.
