LL.M.

One year LL.M. (Master of Law) is an internationally recognized postgraduate law degree. It is obtained by completing one-year full-time programme. Law students and professionals pursue the LL.M. to gain expertise in a specialized field of law, for example in the area of Corporate Law and Criminal Law. Many law firms prefer candidates with an LL.M. degree because it indicates that a lawyer has acquired advanced, specialized legal training, and is qualified to work in a multinational legal environment.

The Master of Law (LL.M.) is the degree of choice for career advancement and international credibility, particularly in today's competitive and globally focused legal environment. I had a great time at Sharda University during my course as the environment inside the campus is so pleasant and vibrant and the University administration and management as well as the faculty members have always been so co-operative. The University provided scholarships to me every year which helped me a lot in achieving good education without worrying about financial hurdles.

Utsav Mishra

B.A. LL.B. (Hons.)

My experience at Sharda's School of Law has been quite enlightening. A multi-cultural environment gives the students an illuminating introspects in the classrooms itself. Also, the practical elements provided make the course an exciting venture, eliciting a broader insight into the field, especially with the frequent visits to places like District Court, Supreme Court, National Commission, etc.
