Family Dispute Resolution Clinic (FDRC): Sharda School of Law, in association with the Gautam Budh Nagar Police Commissionerate, has established the Family Dispute Resolution Clinic (FDRC) at Knowledge Park -2, Police Station, Greater Noida. The FDRC aims to provide high-quality, client-centred, and compassionate specialist family dispute resolution services through mediation techniques.

The mediation team comprises experts, including the Law Faculty, Psychiatrists, Researchers, Clinical Counsellors, NGOs, and Police Officials. The FDRC has resolved over 400 family disputes with a 90% success rate.

In the last three and a half years, approximately 4,200 counselling sessions have been conducted by the Family Dispute Resolution Clinic team, addressing 1,088 cases. In only 118 of these cases were the parties unable to reconcile their differences, resulting in the filing of FIRs.

FDRC has achieved a commendable success rate of 85% in 2023 and 87.81% overall in the past three and a half years.

The primary objective of the Family Dispute Resolution Clinic is to help reconcile disputes, primarily between husband and wife, by guiding them toward amicable solutions. In several cases, the clinic has helped de-escalate situations involving cross-complaints, multiple FIRs, or divorce proceedings, thereby preventing avoidable legal confrontations and emotional distress.

Counsellors at the FDRC play a vital role in helping parties identify underlying issues, offering effective strategies for resolution, providing psychological support, and encouraging both individuals to reach a mutually respectful and satisfactory outcome.
