The Laws Against Ragging

The Supreme Court of India has banned ragging in all educational institutions.

The UGC has also issued regulations on ragging.

The state governments have also enacted laws against ragging.

These laws make it a crime to rag someone, and they also provide punishment for those who are found guilty of ragging.

Dear All,

The Literary Society of Sharda University, in collaboration with the Office of Dean Students' Welfare, is pleased to announce the organization of "Rakshanam 2024". This event is a part of the observance of the "ANTI- RAGGING WEEK" and is aligned with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC) to foster awareness about the various aspects of Anti-Ragging practices within the campus environment.

There will be 3 competitions that will take place under this event:

1. Slogan Writing
2. Anti Ragging Online Quiz
3. Poster Designing
4. Digital Poster Designing

Objective of Events:

- Fostering awareness among the university students about Anti-Ragging practices.
- Educating students about the detrimental effects of ragging and the potential legal consequences of engaging in such activities.
- Encouraging student participation through various activities such as Slogan writing, and Digital Poster-Making.
- Engaging the participants through a Digital Quiz on Anti-Ragging.

Registration Link: <https://forms.gle/5x8oZuKWJoA5qwdG7>

Guidelines for the event to be followed:

- Everyone must carry their University Id card.
- Everyone should be on time.
- Registration is mandatory for participation in the competition for poster/slogan/logo designing and quiz.
