Incentive and Financial Support Plan to Promote Research - revised

Embarking on a higher trajectory of research embedded teaching-learning, the University with an emphasis for being recognized as a global leader in cutting edge research, is motivating its Students, Scholars & Teaching staff in the form of this policy, which supersedes all previous notifications on the same subject. Envisaging to celebrate the excellence in research, this blueprint is a holistic revision in the incentive and financial support plan, with a vision to accelerate the high impact research outcomes.

Objectives:

- To promote a culture for producing high quality research.
- To further augment interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary and transdisciplinary research.
- To provide required support through research framework and guidelines for research and facilitation to faculty and students for research promotion.
- To bolster infrastructural facility and human capital for establishing a strong R&D base.
- To protect the generated IPR by facilitating the faculty to file patents, their commercialization, copy rights, etc.
- To suitably incentivize the faculty/ Staff and students for patents, research publications, process & product development, extramural research grants, consultancy work, attending conferences/ seminars, membership of professional societies etc.
- To provide Ph.D. Fellowship and Teaching Assistantship to the Ph.D. scholars.
- To regularly monitor and track the research outcomes for improving the research quality.
- To promote globalization of research & development for global visibility of Sharda University.
