ALUMNI TESTIMONIALS

Yusuf Kawu Ibrahim, MA English

"My Master's programme experience at Sharda University. My name is Yusuf Kawu Ibrahim. I hail from Nigeria and have completed my Master's degree at Sharda University. My Masters introduced me to new ways of thinking, foundational skills for research and critical thinking. This in turn equipped me with the practical skills I needed for international exposure to do research and write materials professionally. I am delighted to have supportive and helpful lecturers who did their best to guide me through the entire course by keeping us up-to-date with opportunities and work experiences. This prompted me to highly encourage doing Masters not only for a future career but also for enthusiasm for the chosen subject."

Farah Mustafa Alavi, MA English

"Being a part of the English Department at Sharda University has been one of the most meaningful experiences of my life. The faculty here are not just experts in their fields, they are warm, supportive mentors who truly care about their students. Their guidance helped me find my voice, build confidence, and fall even more in love with literature. The department offers the perfect mix of serious study and creative freedom. Whether through classroom discussions, seminars, or literature festivals, I always felt encouraged to explore, question, and grow. It's a place where you're not just taught literature, you're inspired to live it. Every conversation, every class, and every experience has helped shape who I am today. For me, the English Department will always be more than just a place of learning. It will always feel like home."

Sonia Das, MA Modern History

"Hi, I'm Sonia Das, a student of modern history from the Department of History (SSHSS). Being part of the history department has been a journey I'll always cherish and be grateful for. With quality education, the department offered me opportunities to grow in different fields and co-curricular activities. Our professors have been incredibly hardworking and patient, always ready to guide—whether it was through classroom discussions or just lending an ear when needed for academic or personal support. SSHSS gave me more than academic knowledge; it gave me confidence, opportunities to grow, and a sense of belonging."

Syed Ahsan Illahi, B.A. History

"Attending Sharda University has been one of the most defining moments of my academic experience. The lively campus, the cosmopolitan student body, and the unlimited avenues for development make it so much more than a university — it's a world of its own. But what makes it truly unique are the incredible professors at the School of Humanities and Social Sciences. Their brilliance, depth of knowledge, and unflinching commitment to students have made me approach education in an entirely new way. Each lecture offers an offer to ponder, each discussion an inch closer to clarity and purpose. Mentorship here has been nothing short of transformative. At Sharda, I do not merely study History — I experience it, question it, and evolve through it. This university is where passion converges with purpose"

Gangte Tachung, B.A. Political Science

Hello, I am Gangte Tachung, a student of B.A. Political Science at Sharda University. This programme has been intellectually enriching and transformative, offering a strong foundation in political theory, comparative politics, international relations, and public policy.

A key highlight of my experience has been the mentorship of Dr. Rukmani Joshi. Her engaging teaching style, deep subject knowledge, and ability to relate theory to real-world issues make her classes both insightful and inspiring. She creates a supportive learning environment that encourages critical thinking and open dialogue. Beyond academics, Dr. Rukmani is a compassionate mentor who genuinely invests in her students' growth.

Neikuosatuo Kire, B.A. Political Science

My experience in the B.A. Political Science programme at Sharda University has been intellectually and personally enriching. The course offers a well-designed curriculum that blends theoretical knowledge with contemporary issues, encouraging critical thinking and engaging dialogue.

A defining part of this journey has been learning under Dr. Rukmani Joshi. Her passion for teaching, empathetic approach, and ability to connect with students make her an exceptional educator and mentor. She creates a classroom environment that inspires confidence, curiosity, and growth.

True to the saying, "Teachers are like candles," Dr. Rukmani has been a guiding light—supportive, encouraging, and deeply invested in our development.

Srishti Roy, B.A. (Hons) Psychology

"I, Srishti Roy, a former undergraduate student in psychology from Sharda University express my immense gratitude towards the university and the psychology department for guiding me through my journey, supporting me in achieving various milestones that I proudly speak of. Constant exposure, field visits and extra curricular activities gave me the opportunity to develop holistically. Each event, activity or course catered my interests not only on an academic level but also at a non academic and creative level. Not alone the department but the time spent with my fellow classmates who brought diversity through their thoughts, beliefs and culture helped me grow as a human being which again is credited to the University that creates an environment that's inclusive and supports harmony.

Praneet Xalxo, B.A. (Hons) Sociology

"Being a part of the Sharda School of Humanities and Social Sciences (SSHSS) has been one of the most enriching and transformative experiences of my life. Completing my bachelor's degree in Sociology was one of the most transformative journeys of my life, and I owe so much of that growth to the incredible guidance and support of my teachers. Each member of the faculty brought not only deep academic knowledge but also a genuine passion for teaching and mentoring. Their ability to challenge us intellectually while encouraging independent thought made every lecture, discussion, and assignment a meaningful experience. They were always approachable, patient, and committed to helping us think critically, not just about sociology, but about the world around us. What stood out most was their dedication to creating a learning environment that was both rigorous and compassionate. I feel proud and grateful to have studied under such inspiring educators. Their influence continues to shape how I think, research, and engage with society today."

Jaslan Rane, B.A. Economics

"Studying Economics at Sharda University has been a rewarding experience. The course structure and faculty guidance at Sharda exceeded my expectations and provided me the right blend of knowledge, exposure and opportunities. Thankful to Sharda University for laying a strong foundation in economics and preparing me for the future."

Areza Javed, BA (Hon.s) Economics

"The School of Humanities and Social Science has given me the experience of a lifetime. We get chances for internships, guest lectures and conferences which open a whole new pool of opportunities for me and my fellow classmates. The faculty is very supportive and there are people from diverse backgrounds. Interacting with everyone is not less than a learning moment. SSHSS has taught me a lot and I hope to learn more."

Priyanka Mali, MA (Hons.) Economics

"Being a Master's student in Economics my experience so far has been incredibly enlightening. The faculty's expertise and support, along with a collaborative peer environment, have made learning both challenging and rewarding. Engaging with peers from diverse backgrounds has enriched my learning experience and opened up new ways of thinking. In addition to strengthening my academic background, this program is developing my research and analytical abilities for potential future contributions to economic growth and policymaking."

Yash Sahu, BA (Hons.) Geography

"Studying geography at Sharda University has completely changed the way I see the world. From understanding climate change, disasters to global cultures, every lesson felt relevant and engaging. The hands-on activities and real-world examples through fieldwork in Geography, made learning both fun and insightful. My geography teachers are highly qualified and learned. They know the art of breaking tough topics into simpler forms. I now have a deeper appreciation for how geography shapes our lives!"

Priyanshu Sengar, B.A (Hons) Geography

"Studying Geography (Hons.) at Sharda University, Greater Noida was a transformative journey. The faculty, resources, and supportive environment helped me grow academically and personally. I gained deep insights into geography and developed skills that will pave my way to shape my career in my aspirational direction. I'm truly grateful for the enriching experience and lifelong memories."
